

CUNTENTE

Malvasia Nera IGT

VINI MALACARI

Description: Salento, Rosato

Appearance: The "Cuntente" rosé wine, produced with Malvasia grapes, appears in the glass with a pale, luminous and fascinating shade of pink. This delicate color promises a fresh and refined tasting experience.

Smell: The exploration of the aromatic bouquet of "Cuntente" reveals a mix of floral and fruity aromas. At first approach, fragrances of spring flowers such as rose and jasmine emerge, which give the wine a fascinating character. Notes of red fruits such as ripe strawberries and cherries add an underlined sweetness, while a touch of citrus releases freshness and vitality.

Taste: The palate is caressed by a sensation of freshness and vitality. The "Cuntente" offers a pleasant acidity that gives liveliness to the wine, while the body is light and graceful. The red fruitiness, with notes of strawberry and cherry, is well balanced and persistent, creating a pleasant and fruity flavour. The finish is clean and inviting, with an aftertaste that recalls floral and fruity fragrances.

Culinary pairings: It is an ideal companion for light and fresh dishes, perfect for the warmer seasons. It pairs beautifully with summer salads, fish dishes such as sushi and ceviche, and fresh, creamy cheeses. It is also an excellent choice for appetizers based on raw ham and melon, which underline its freshness and delicacy.

Alcohol contente: 13.5% vol.

Serving temperature: 8°-10° degrees